
Incoming Students

Currently, over 11 000 international students study at Charles University. Students from all around the world are creating a vibrant, international and multicultural environment at our University. Each year Charles welcomes new students to foundation programmes, full degree programmes, exchange programmes such as the Erasmus+, inter-university exchanges or students coming as free movers.

You can check out our websites for more information about the programmes, eligibility, application process and other related topics.

