

Statement of the Charles University on the circumstances of the lecture at FSV UK in Jinonice

Prague, 6. 11. 2024 – Charles University is a campus where freedom of speech applies and the University respects it as such. The lecture Beyond the two-state solution: rethinking the path to peace after October 7th, 2023, which was organised by the Student Government of the Institute of International Studies of the FSV UK, was attended by all those duly registered and interested in the Middle East region. The entire situation on the spot was monitored by the Security Department of the Charles University to ensure the safety of all participants. The Czech Police were called in to identify the students to ensure the safety of all participants in the lecture. No physical conflict was confirmed by the police investigation at the scene.

Leadership of Charles University