Others Considerations	Is necessary for the student who considers coming to postgraduate studies of the UNAM must be a bachelor (graduated), the courses are given in Spanish so you need to fully understand this language, note that will only be able participate in this program to take courses (isolated subjects) for up to two semesters, shall NOT be of some specialization programs, must be enrolled the master's or doctorate in their home university, and these courses have NOT credit value for the UNAM, but may be proved by their home university.
Spanish Class	The admission for the courses offered at the "Centro de Enseñanza para Extranjeros" (CEPE), is independent, so you should consult the programs, admission requirements, registration dates and costs of the educational offer of CEPE by yourself, because these courses are offered independently from the postgraduate coordination

CREDITS AND GRADING SCALE

Credits: Value of Credits – UNAM: Credit is the unit or grading for a course that is computed in the following way: a) In activities that require study or additional work from the student, such as theoretical classes or seminars, one hour of class week-semester corresponds to two (2) credits. b) In activities that don't require additional work or study from the student, such as practices, laboratories, workshops, etc., one hour of class week-semester corresponds to (1) credit. c) The value in credit of clinic activities and practice for the learning of music and visual arts, will be computed globally according to importance in the study plan and to the criteria from the corresponding Technical Board and from the University Board. School year will have the duration stated in the university's calendar. Credits for courses with duration less than a semester will be calculated proportionally to their duration. Credits will be expressed in whole numbers. 1 credit (Theory) is equivalent to 8 Hrs. 1 credit (Practical) is equivalent to 16 Hrs.	Grading Scale: Grading Scale at UNAM: 0-5.9= Not Approved/Fail; 6= Sufficient-Performance meets the minimum criteria; 7= Satisfactory-Fair work with significant shortcomings; 8= Good- Generally sound work with some notable errors; 9= Very good-Above average results with some errors; 10= Excellent-Outstanding results with only minor errors.
