
Further Education of Employees

The university offers further education of employees in social-psychological, managerial, language, and other competencies. The complete offer of university-wide educational programmes can be found on the Integrated Educational Portal , and employees may log on to this site via CAS using their log-on name numberUK@cuni.cz. Instructions can be found here .

Certain faculties offer their employees education as additional offered courses or forms of education.