
Annual leave

Charles University provides its employees with one week of annual leave in addition to the base assessment established in the Labour Code, i.e. a total of five weeks of annual leave.
According to the Labour Code, academic staff has eight weeks of annual leave in total.