
Discounts and benefits

Charles University strives to constantly improve the standard of care for its employee, and one of the most important activities in this area is the development of employee benefits. The objective is not only to expand the offer of university-wide benefits provided by the faculties or other units, but also to improve cooperation with external organizations.

The section Discounts and Benefits is divided into 6 subsections according to categories, where you can find a comprehensive summary of benefits that CU employees and members of the CU Alumni Club can take advantage of inside the university or with external suppliers. The list is updated on a regular basis.

Should you have any questions, uncertainties, comments, or recommendations relating to a certain area, please contact jana.sikorova@ruk.cuni.cz.
