
Rector's Directive No. 6/2020

Priorities for the Activities of Mobility Fund of Charles University

1. Priorities in individual fields:

- a. Study for full-time students at a foreign university for one or two semesters, in particular the following:
- Students, based on an inter-university agreement on direct cooperation;
 - Students in joint doctoral programmes with respect to joint degree, double degree, and cotutelle;
 - Students implementing a stay in the form of “free movers” in a master’s programme of study;
 - Students implementing a stay in the form of “free movers” in a doctoral programme of study;

especially:

- in relation to reciprocity;
- with respect to long-term exchange;
- involving presentation of the student’s research outputs.

The stay abroad must be credited as an integral component of the curriculum of doctoral students and at least as a partial component of the curriculum of students in master’s programmes of study.

b. Study of foreign students at CU:

- Students, based on inter-university agreement on cooperation;
- Full-time students in doctoral and master’s programmes with respect to joint degree, double degree, cotutelle, and “free movers” form.

c. Stays of foreign university or research workers at the University:

- Introduction of a new discipline (field) of study or research at CU;
- Expansion of the current state of instruction in a given field;
- Work at several faculties at CU;
- Preparation for the involvement of CU in an international joint project;
- Work of a foreign university worker on “sabbatical” at CU;
- A short-term lecturing or research stay at CU.

d. Short-term research stays abroad

especially:

within the framework of preparation of a joint programme (in particular a doctoral programme) with a prestigious foreign entity.

This does not apply to trips to conferences, seminars, congresses, etc.

A stay of a minimum of three weeks.

2. Deadline for the submission of proposals:

- In the summer semester: by the end of March;
- In the winter semester: by the end of October.

3. Repealing provision: Rector’s Directive No. 58/2018 setting priorities for the year 2019 is hereby repealed.
