Concerning the epidemiological situation in the Czech Republic, various anti-epidemic measures are still valid. More information about the Covid-19 pandemic in the Czech Republic is also available here.

Study at Charles University in 2021/2022
The submission of applications is still open for various study programmes. Check the central database of all study programmes or the list with extended application deadlines where you may find all the essential information. List of all study programmes in foreign languages for the academic year 2021/2022 is also available here. Charles University does not open Bachelor’s and Master’s programmes for spring intake, the admission procedure takes place once a year only.

Travelling to the Czech Republic
At this moment, travelling to and from the Czech Republic is still restricted. However, the situation evolves every day. Please, follow the website of the Ministry of the Interior of the Czech Republic for conditions and updates. Also, stay in touch with the Czech embassies abroad.

You can find the conditions for entry of persons to the territory of the Czech Republic in accordance with the Ministry of Health Protective Measure in the attached document (valid from June 21, 2021).

Acceptance of new long-term visa/residence permit applications for the purpose of study is resumed at the respective consulates including Student Facilitation Program (REŽIM STUDENT). The Ministry of Foreign Affairs updates the table regularly.

Summer with Charles University
Would you like to learn something new or explore your study field even in the summer? Enjoy your holidays, earn some credits and choose from our summer schools and other short-term courses in 2021. Look at the details with programme characteristics here.

CU on Social Media
If you are interested in studying with us, you may follow the CU community on social media. You will learn essential up-to-date information as well as interesting facts about the university and its life. Is there a new study field? You will be the first to know about it. Is there going to be a webinar on communication skills? We will let you know.
