The Czech Republic is currently under a state of emergency, which will last until April 30 and which entails a number of restrictions to normal life. Higher education institutions have switched to an online form of teaching (as Skype, MS Teams etc.) and their premises are temporarily closed (including Charles University).

However, the situation with regard to the spread of the Covid-19 in the Czech Republic is relatively stable and we will update you regularly about the admission process. More information about the Covid-19 pandemic in the Czech Republic is also available here.

The Covid-19 pandemic - information for applicants

For information about the dates of the entrance examinations see here (as of March 20, 2020).

Please note, further changes may occur depending on the development of the situation. For questions contact the respective faculty’s admission office. If you have already submitted the application, please follow the news on the university or faculty website and stay in touch with the admission office.

Extention of application deadlines

Some of our faculties have already decided to change or extend the application deadlines. Please, check the database or see the list here.
