Concerning the epidemiological situation in the Czech Republic, various anti-epidemic measures are still valid. It is necessary to wear protective masks in all indoor areas and also in outdoor areas (exceptions apply). The state of emergency was declared on October 5, 2020 and will last until January 22, 2021. More information about the Covid-19 pandemic in the Czech Republic is also available here. Charles University started the academic year 2020/2021 as planned. However, most classes take place online (in distance form).

Study at Charles University in 2021/2022

Application deadlines and conditions for the academic year 2021/2022 are published. The submission of applications is open; however, some programmes are still being prepared and the admission procedure will begin shortly. Check the central database of all study programmes where you may find all the essential information. Charles University does not open Bachelor’s and Master’s programmes for spring intake, the admission procedure takes place once a year only.

Travelling to the Czech Republic

At this moment, travelling to and from the Czech Republic is restricted. However, the situation evolves every day. Please, follow the website of the Ministry of the Interior of the Czech Republic for conditions and updates. Also, stay in touch with the Czech embassies abroad.

You can find the conditions for entry of persons to the territory of the Czech Republic in accordance with the Ministry of Health Protective Measure in the attached document (valid from December 20, 2020).

Acceptance of new long-term visa/residence permit applications for the purpose of study is resumed at the respective consulates including Student Facilitation Program (REŽIM STUDENT). The Ministry of Foreign Affairs updates the table regularly.
