30.01. 2013	Third Faculty of Medicine	Prof. Erling Norrby	Professor, Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences	Sweden	medicine

2012

17.10. 2012	Faculty of Law	Prof. Dr. Dr.h.c. mult. Robert Alexy	Professor, University of Kiel	Germany	law	contribution to the development of the 'Rechtsstaat', constitutionalism and human rights in the Czech Republic and worldwide
17.10. 2012	Faculty of Law	Prof. Dr. Robert Badinter	Professor, Université Paris I Panthéon- Sorbonne	France	law	contribution to the protection of human rights and Czech-French academic cooperation in jurisprudence
4.10. 2012	Third Faculty of Medicine First Faculty of Medicine	Prof. Eugene Braunwald, M.D.	Professor, Matej Bel University, Faculty of Natural Sciences, Banská Bystrica, Slovakia	USA	medicine	globally unique contribution to research and teaching of cardiology and internal medicine, exceptional cooperation with Charles University researchers
4.4.20	Faculty of Mathematics and Physics	Prof. RNDr. Beloslav Riečan, DrSc.	Professor, Matej Bel University, Faculty of Natural Sciences, Banská Bystrica, Slovakia	Slovakia	mathematics and physics	lifetime achievements in measure and integration theory and probability theory, exceptional long- term cooperation benefiting Czech scholarship and higher education
4.4.20	Faculty of Mathematics and Physics	Prof. Kumbakonam R. Rajagopal	Professor, Texas A&M University, College Station	USA	mathematics and physics	exceptional contribution to continuum mechanics and long-term support for the development of the field at Charles University
23.4.2	First Faculty of Medicine	Prof. Dr. rer. nat. Hans- Joachim Gabius	Professor, Ludwig- Maximilians- Universität, Munich	Germany	medicine	lifetime achievements in glycobiology and support for Czech scholarship and higher education
23.4.2	First Faculty of Medicine	Prof. Christoph Wanner, M.D.	Professor, University Hospital Würzburg	Germany	medicine	lifetime achievements in internal medicine – prevention and cure of kidney diseases and support for Czech scholarship and higher education
17.5.2	Faculty of Social Sciences	Prof. Stefano Zamagni	Professor, University of Bologna	Italy	economics	contribution to European cultural identity and humanism, original contributions to economics, major contribution to studies of economics and social sciences at Charles University
17.5.2	Faculty of Arts	Prof. Geoffrey Leech	Professor, University Lancaster	United Kingdom	philology	development and strengthening of Czech-British relations in scholarship and education, consistent support for English studies in Czechoslovakia and the Czech Republic

26.6.2	Faculty of Mathematics and Physics	Prof. Donald Lynden Bell, FRS	Emeritus Professor, Institute of Astronomy, University of Cambridge	United Kingdom	mathematics and physics	exceptional lifetime achievements in theoretical astrophysics, physics and cosmology, important contribution to the development of research at Charles University
26.6.2	Faculty of Mathematics and Physics	Prof. Dr. Wolfgang Domcke	Professor, Chair of Theoretical Chemistry Technical University of Munich	Germany	mathematics and physics	exceptional lifetime achievements in theoretical atomic and molecular physics, important contribution to the development of research at Charles University

2.6.20	First Faculty of Medicine	Prof. Patrick Anthony Riley	Emeritus Professor of Cell Pathology, University of London, Director of Totteridge Institute for Advanced Studies, London	United Kingdom	medicine	lifetime achievements in chemical, biochemical and biological research of normal pigment cells and cancer cells, melanosomes and melanogenesis and its utilization in the treatment of malignant melanomas, support for Czech scholarship and higher education

22.3.2	Faculty of Arts	Prof. Dr. Anne Hudson	Emeritus Professor, Lady Margaret Hall, University of Oxford	United Kingdom	history	outstanding contribution to the development of historical scholarship and education in the Czech Republic
7.4.20	Faculty of Arts	Prof. Dr. Walter Pape	Professor, University of Cologne	Germany	philosophy	exceptional contribution to the development and strengthening of Czech-German relations in scholarship, culture and education
15.6.2	Faculty of Mathematics and Physics	Prof. Endre Szemerédi	Professor, Rutgers University, Member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences	Hungary	mathematics and physics	exceptional lifetime achievements in mathematics and information science, particularly in number theory and combinatorics

2009

18.2.20	Faculty of Arts	Prof. Marie-Elizabeth Ducreux, Ph.D.	Professor, Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique, Centre de Recherches Historiques EHESS	France	history	development and strengthening of Czech-French relations in scholarship, culture and education
20.5.20	First Faculty of Medicine	Prof. Solomon Halbert Snyder, M.D.	Distinguished Service Professor of Neuroscience, Pharmacology and Psychiatry, Johns Hopkins Medical School	USA	medicine	lifetime achievements in the study of brain molecular biology and major contribution to the development of neurosciences

12.10.2	First Faculty of Medicine	Prof. William Charles Earnshaw, Ph.D., FRSE	Principal Research Fellow, Wellcome Trust, Wellcome Trust Centre for Cell Biology, University of Edinburgh	USA	medicine	lifetime achievements in studies of chromosome structure and mechanisms of mitosis, support for Czech scholarship and higher education
2.11.20	First Faculty of Medicine	Prof. Dr. med. Meinhard Classen	Emeritus Professor and former Director, Medical Clinic II, Hospital "Rechts der Isar", Technical University of Munich	Germany	medicine	lifetime achievements and groundbreaking contribution to gastroenterology and gastrointestinal oncology, development of fundamental endoscopic techniques and exceptional contribution to the introduction of public cancer screening programmes worldwide
