
CU Point

Website

At CU Point - Centre for Information, Counselling and Social Services we offer help and advice to Charles University students, people interested in studying at the University, graduates, staff, and visitors to Charles University.

Besides providing information about the University, we also work closely with a range of professionals who provide expert advice and counselling services to the University's students and staff. The Centre has several branches where we will always be glad to help you.

More about us .

