
CHARLESTON Programme: Call for Applicants Now Open

6 March 2025

Charles University has officially launched the first call for applicants within the CHARLESTON programme, co-funded by the European Commission's MSCA COFUND initiative (Horizon Europe). This programme will support 10 early-career researchers in the first call, offering them a 24-month postdoctoral fellowship at Charles University and a 3 to 6-month secondment in a non-academic institution.

The programme focuses on three key pillars:

- Sustainable development and societal impact in line with the UN Sustainable Development Goals.
- Intersectoral collaboration strengthened by secondments in non-academic institutions.
- Career development with specialized training and mentoring for postdoctoral researchers.

Postdoctoral researchers can submit their project proposals until 31 May 2025, 14:00 (Prague time). Applications must be submitted via the IS Věda portal.

For more information about the first call, including the Guide for applicants, application templates, and further details visit the CHARLESTON programme website.
