
Faculty of Law

Association of Czech Lawyers – VŠEHRD

The VšeHRD Association of Czech Lawyers is the oldest Czech lawyers' association in the Czech Republic and belongs to the oldest associations. Most of its management is formed by students. Among honorary members belong such personalities as Prof. Václav Klaus, former President of the Czech Republic, or Prof. Roger Scruton, the British political scientist and other important personalities of the legal and social life. Among the activities of the association belong especially the organization of lectures and other educational events. The Association is now opened also for graduates who can apply for membership.

Website: <http://www.vsehrd.cz/en/>

Church Law Society

The Church Law Society is a society, which was founded during the academic year 1994/1995 by students and teachers of the Faculty of Law of the Charles University. Its aim is to support the study and work in Church Law, State Ecclesiastical Law and in other subjects in connection with Church Law. The Society is a place of integration of students and teachers and also general public, who are interested in these subjects. The Society is founded on friendly relationships with churches and religious societies. Society's members are of various religious beliefs. The Society is also open to the people without any religious belief. As of 1 February 2016, the Society has 457 members from various parts of the Czech Republic and also from abroad.

Website: <http://spcp.prf.cuni.cz/aj/a-index.htm>

ELSA - The European Law Students' Association

With 43,000 members ELSA is the world's largest independent law students' association. It provides opportunities for international exchange, diversified legal education and personal professional development for law students and young lawyers. Members are law students and recent graduates who have an academic focus and have demonstrated commitment to international issues. ELSA operates primarily through its Local Groups, which are located at nearly 300 law faculties in universities throughout 43 countries in Europe. In the Czech Republic is ELSA situated at law faculties in Brno, Olomouc, Pilsen and Prague.

Webpage: <http://www.elsa.cz/en-home/>