
International Mobility

The international mobility is intended for students going to countries where it is not possible to go using the traditional Erasmus. For more information about the selection procedure, please contact your faculty coordinator.

Who can apply?

Any student who is enrolled in an accredited bachelor's, master's or doctoral degree programme and will be duly enrolled for studies at Charles University for the entire period of the stay abroad may participate.

What is the duration of a mobility?

Stays can last from 2 to 12 months. The minimum length of stay of 2 months is considered to be 60 days.

How many times can I go on mobility?

As many times as you pass the selection procedure, but please NOTE that the total time spent on Erasmus per one cycle of study (bachelor's, master's, doctoral) may not exceed 12 months, or 24 months if the course of study is an undivided master's programme (e.g. law or medicine).
