
Veronika Čapská

doc. Veronika Čapská, Ph.D.

Associate Professor and Vice-Dean for International Relations at Faculty of Humanities, Charles University

Expertise and focus:	I combine expertise in pre-modern history, cultural anthropology and art history/visual and material culture. I am an early modernist (1500-1800) with overlaps with the late Middle Ages and early nineteenth century. I focus on cultural exchanges and transcultural/border-crossing phenomena, such as the history of translation, print culture, gift exchange, material culture, the history of mobilities, correspondence networks, gender history, etc.
Form of mentoring meetings:	Either way, online or offline
Has an experience in:	Academic career Internationalisation Work/life balance
	Link to CV

Previous mentoring experience:	I have experience with reviewing doctoral and postdoctoral papers of early career scholars from the University of Cambridge, UK. I serve as a Young Researchers Coordinator in the COST Action on early modern print culture. I also served as a volunteer mentor in the Programme of Czech-Brazilian Academic Cooperation.
Motivation:	I would like to support early career researchers at a vulnerable stage in their careers and share the experience I have gradually gained as an experienced scholar.
Career guidance topics you can discuss with the mentor:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Navigating the job market, employment opportunities• Creating a career plan, strategy• Identifying and utilizing one's skill set• Asking essential life questions
Research related experience the mentor is ready to share with the mentee:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Preparation of scientific publications - how to do it correctly, efficiently, and with quality• Grant writing process, grant application consultation• Consultation on preparation for a job interview• Networking - introducing people in the field