
Council of International Schools

Council of International Schools

The Council of International Schools (CIS) is a collaborative global membership organisation connecting over 945 schools and more than 630 universities committed to advancing high-quality international education.

CIS supports its members in promoting global citizenship, intercultural competence, and student well-being, while facilitating strong connections between secondary schools and higher education institutions.

As a CIS member, Charles University benefits from access to a wide network of international counsellors, students, and institutions, as well as data, resources, and events designed to strengthen international recruitment and engagement strategies.

CIS places strong emphasis on ethical standards, student transitions, and the creation of socially responsible global citizens. Its events and partnerships help universities better understand the needs of international students and foster meaningful collaboration with schools worldwide. Through CIS membership, Charles University enhances its visibility, deepens global partnerships, and supports its long-term commitment to internationalisation and student success.