Financial Support for International Credit Mobility

If you are a staff member from a partner university with which Charles University has an approved cooperation project under the Erasmus+ International Credit Mobility (ICM) programme and you have been nominated by your home university to come to Charles University, you will receive an Erasmus+ grant after your arrival to support your stay here. The grant is paid in cash in euros and calculated according to the rates listed below.

In addition to the mobility period, individual support may be provided for eligible travel days: two travel days for standard travel and up to six travel days when using low-emission means of transport.

* The travel distance is calculated from the participant's place of origin to the venue of the activity using the European Commission's Distance Calculator available here.

Green Travel

- The following are considered environmentally friendly means of transport: train, bus, bicycle, boat, provided that boat travel is combined with another low-emission means of transport, shared car travel, or carpooling.
 - For travel by shared car, you must submit the original statutory declaration signed by everyone who travelled in the vehicle. A template is available for download here: Statutory Declaration for Carpooling.
- Important: It is not considered carpooling if someone drives you abroad and then returns home without you. Carpooling is only eligible when everyone travelling in the car intends to stay at the destination. For example, you may travel together with other Erasmus+ participants who are travelling to the same destination.
- You are eligible for the higher green travel grant if you use an environmentally friendly means of transport for at least one of your journeys (to the Czech Republic or back home, or both).
- Participants travelling a distance of less than 500 km should use low-emission transport.
- You must make a binding choice of your means of transport when completing the questionnaire in Microsoft Word sent to you by e-mail. The amount of your grant will be calculated on the basis of the option you select.
