
Tuition Fees and Scholarships

Charles University does not provide centrally awarded scholarships, financial support for students in English study programmes is organized by the individual faculties (see below).

Fees for studies in English

Studies in English and other foreign languages (German, French, Russian) are subject to tuition fees. The tuition fees range from CZK 0 (some Ph.D. programmes) to CZK 360,000 per year, depending on the faculty and study programme. Check the Central database of all study programmes for the programme fees or see the brochure here.

Scholarships

General overview of scholarships for studies in the Czech Republic is available on the website of Study in the Czech Republic or the website Study in Prague.

CHARLES UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS

- Ph.D. scholarships: Doctoral scholarships are awarded to all students enrolled in a full-time doctoral study programme during the standard length of study (usually 3 - 4 years). The scholarship ranges from CZK 10,500 to CZK 25,000 per month. The specific amount within this range is determined by the Dean of the Faculty, in accordance with the Faculty Internal Regulation.

Other financial support for students studying in English (or other foreign language) study programmes is organized by individual faculties. At this moment, three faculties offer scholarships to students in English taught study programmes (see the links below for more specifications and conditions):

- FACULTY OF MATHEMATICS AND PHYSICS

INTERNATIONAL VISEGRAD FUND SCHOLARSHIPS

The program offers various types of grants for different shareholders; the Visegrad Scholarship is intended for Master's and Doctoral students. It promotes closer co-operation between the four Visegrad Group countries – Czech Republic, Slovakia, Hungary, and Poland. These scholarships are awarded not only to applicants from the Visegrad countries but also to applicants from Albania, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, Georgia, North Macedonia, Moldova, Monte Negro, Russian Federation, Serbia and Ukraine, enabling them to study in one of the V4 countries; the same rules apply also to applicants from Kosovo. More information on the Visegrad fund is available on the Visegrad Fund website.

Fees for studies in Czech

Studies in Czech are free of charge. A tuition fee is charged only if the student exceeds the standard length of study by more than one year. Example: The standard length of study for a Master's degree in General Medicine is 6 years. Students may study 7 years (6+1) free of charge. If they do not complete their studies by the 7th year, they will have to pay a certain amount upon entering their 8th year.
