
Alumni Club

CHARLES UNIVERSITY Alumni Club

Open to all graduates

- The Alumni Club is open to both Czech and foreign nationals who completed their Bachelor's, Master's or doctoral studies at Charles University
- Age is not a factor: you can join regardless of whether you graduated last year - or decades ago
- It is possible to be a member of both the Charles University Alumni Club and your faculty's graduate association

By joining, you'll get...

- The latest information about what's new at the university and at your faculty
- Regular invitations to social and cultural events, presentations and seminars
- Attractive benefits within the university and external partners
- A chance to meet former fellow students, professors as well as current university representatives
- The opportunity to use the university library and database
- A chance to remain in active contact with your alma mater
