Annual Report

The Annual Report assesses the fulfilment of the Long-term Plan and its updates, and the Annual Financial Report, which is an instrument for controlling the financial performance of a higher education institution and the efficiency and expediency with which its resources are managed. The draft Annual Report is submitted by the Rector to the Academic Senate for approval.

A budget is drawn up by the University for each calendar year. Besides the income generated by the activities of the University, the budget is drawn mainly from contributions and subsidies from the state budget. It is a legal requirement that there should not be a budget deficit.
