5. An application for a fee reduction on grounds that the applicant has completed his/her studies in the relevant programme of study by the end of the examination period in the winter semester of the academic year for which the Fee had been assessed will be granted and the assessed Fee will be reduced by 50%. The same will apply if the applicant completed his/her studies by the final date of a period for the holding of the defence of a final thesis in the winter semester of said academic year if such deadline comes later than the date under the first sentence.
6. Conditions for granting a Fee relief under paragraphs 1, 2, and 4 also apply to students in doctoral programmes of study. A source document for granting a relief on grounds of the creation of an extensive or particularly distinguished academic work is always also a recommendation of the subject-area board.

Part IV – Common Provisions

Article 22

1. If justified, the Rector can postpone the due date of a fee assessed.
2. In exceptional cases, the Rector can waive or reduce the fee assessed for a reason worthy of special consideration, that is in unexpected, exceptionally serious situations that cannot be covered by a specific waiver or reduction.
3. Along with their application, the applicant must supply the relevant documents substantiating the facts alleged; medical reasons are to be substantiated with a medical report. Should the need be, the University can request additional documents.
4. The basis for the Rector's decision is the opinion of the Dean.
5. Unless stipulated otherwise, the conditions for a waiver or reduction of a fee assessed must be met by the date of the filing of an application.

6. Unless stipulated otherwise, a waiver or reduction of the assessed fee under Part III hereof may be granted only to a student of a bachelor's or master's programme of study.
7. Where a party proves the existence of more than one reason for the reduction or waiver of the fee assessed, relief will be granted in the amount corresponding to the reason for which the highest relief is due, unless provided otherwise.
8. In cases where the amount of relief is not fixed, the specific amount of relief will be determined while taking into account the duration of the relevant fact and its severity.

Article 23

Instalment Plan and Collection and Enforcement of Fees

1. The Dean may allow payment in instalments upon request by the party.
2. A part of the agreement on the payment in instalments is the acknowledgement of a debt.
3. The collection and enforcement of fees for study in a foreign language is the responsibility of faculties.
