
Czech Nature Photo 2019

Beginning on April 30 at the Carolinum

Czech Nature Photo is an exhibition featuring the very best in nature and wildlife photography from both the Czech Republic and neighbouring Slovakia. The installation is related to the annual Czech Press Photo (a prestigious exhibition held for more than 20 years in which a jury chooses the very best in reportage and other photography for the given year).

One of the aims of the show is to stress the importance of wildlife and environmental protection; revealed is a fascinating and unique world. Through photography, Czech Nature Photo reminds us that each one of us can do his or her part to help the environment.

Where: The Carolinum (across from Prague's Estates Theatre)

When: Tuesday April 30 – Friday May 17, open daily from 10 am to 7 pm

Admission: 150,- (full price) and 80,- (seniors 65 and over and students up to the age of 26)